TESSANOC

He spins his words
Into paper kites
And I, like the tail,
Cling to them.
But the day is calm
And it's time

For him to put down
His toys and
Tell me about tomorrow.
And all the
Tomorrows to follow
No more dreams.

No more promises
I must know before
We leave this place
I must know today,
This minute.
Because tomorrow is
The first day of
The rest of my life.

E. Karlin

You would know the secret of death.
But how shall you find it unless you seek
it in the heart of life?
The owl whose night-bound eyes are blind unto the day
cannot unveil the mystery of light.
If you would indeed behold the spirit of death, open your heart wide unto the body of life.
For life and death are one, even as the river and the sea are one.
In the depth of your hopes and desires lies your silent
knowledge of the beyond;
And like seeds dreaming beneath the snow your heart dreams of spring.
Trust the dreams, for in them is hidden the gate of eternity.
Your fear of death is but the trembling of the shepherd when he stands before the King whose hand is to be laid upon him in honor.
Is the shepherd not joyful beneath his trembling,
that he should wear the mark of the king?
Yet is he not more mindful of his trembling?
For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind
and to melt into the sun?
And what is it to cease breathing, but to free
the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unemcumbered?
Only when you drink from the river of silence
shall you indeed sing.
And when you have reached the mountain top,
then you shall begin to climb.
And when the earth shall claim your limbs,
then shall you truly dance.

The Girls Field Hockey team had an excellent season losing only one game to league leading Duxbury. Under the excellent coaching of Miss Babaian and fine jobs by the co-captains Pat Hall and Kim Martin, the team managed to have an outstanding season, and end up the year with a 2-1 victory over the men's faculty.

TAYLOR PUBLISHING COMPANY
"The World's Best Yearbooks Are Taylor-made"

He spins his words
Into paper kites
And I, like the tail,
Cling to them.
But the day is calm
And it's time

For him to put down
His toys and
Tell me about tomorrow.
And all the
Tomorrows to follow
No more dreams.

No more promises
I must know before
We leave this place
I must know today,
This minute.
Because tomorrow is
The first day of
The rest of my life.
